>It may seem like a normal day for jack frost, but it wasn't, somehow north ( a.k.a. santa) called him to his office a.s.a.p! on the way there jack wondered why did north want him for? did he do something wrong? all questions raced through the boy's mind._

_ " ah jack frost come in, come in, sit, sit, sit.!" said north as jack walked in the room, and took a seat. " i have big news for you!" said north looking as happy as ever.
>

_ "congratulation jack frost you are a leader!" said north, jack's mouth was wide open in shock._

_ " wait-wait what?" asked jack frost._

_ " well when i say leader i really mean defender...of the realms." north said._

_ " oh i see you blew your top off have you north, or, or maybe this is a prank from bunnymund for frosting his eggs, haha... very funny you big kangaroo!" jack frost said out loud, hoping it would be a joke, but then he saw that north was not joking._

_ " no,no,no,no,no,no,NO! i-i can't be a leader i'm not fit enough, i'm not strong or smart-"_

_ " but man-in-moon thinks you are."_

_ " well then he's wrong, north, he's wrong!... why does he think that i can be a leader?" jack frost asked._

_ " because he believes in you and so i believe in you." north said, in a clam voice._

_ " ok... (sigh) what to i have to do to become this leader?" jack frost asked. north then took out a scroll and a watch, the watch was golden with four symbols on it... a snowflake, a bow, the sun... and a dragon. and the scroll was titled defenders.
>

_ " this scroll will help you on your journey, it would tell you everything you need to learn, and the watch will help you get to the three worlds, now all you need to do is open the watch and a portal wil open...good luck jack." north said leading the boy out the door. jack frost opened the watch and a cloud of blue light swirled in front of him creating a portal, jack walked into it. but then just as the portal was closing a black figure entered with jack, but unnoticeable to the boy, north recognized the firgure as a nightmare...north realized the battle is beginning._

2. the viking

**hiccup voice over: **

_ " this is berk...it snows nine months in a year...and hails the other three, anything that grows here is tough and tasteless the only upside is the pets...and while most places have horses or parrots we have...dragons! my village has been in peace with dragons ever since i... well me and toothless defeated the red death, ever since then i taught vikings how to live with dragons and how they could protect us from any danger, what i didn't know was that those dangers could become powerful. they can have magic that even i or any dragon couldn't understand. but i also found out powerful forces can help us especially when we are chosen... this is how i met jack frost."_

* * *

>"toothless would you stay still." hiccup said while the ebony dragon was pouncing around the rock hiccup was sitting in. toothless and hiccup was at the cove, and hiccup was drawing him...or at least trying to. hiccup then quit drawing for a moment and focused his eyes on a strange form moving in the snow, at first hiccup thought it was a woods creature, but just in case hiccup went to go check it out. he got out a rather long stick and the end of the stick was shaped like a "g" when hiccup poked the snow the form showed up to be a boy!

_" ow!...wha- hey! give that back!" the boy yelled and took back the step back to give the boy some space._

_" sorry." hiccup said, suddenly the boy looked at him in confusion and shock._

_" you can see me?" the boy asked, now hiccup was the one with the confused look on his face but then realized who the boy was._

_" of course i do...your jokul frosti aren't you?" hiccup asked._

_"ok i'm not sure how you got to that conclusion, but my real name is jack frost." jack said._

_" of course because vikings don't know what jokul frosti means." hiccup said being sarcastic._

_" anyway how did you get under the snow?" hiccup asked._

_" oh...umm..."_

_-flashback-_

_a blue beam of light shined over the crystal clear water and when jack frost step on the water it turned into ice, creating a ice bridge taking the boy to land. _

_" so where am i?" the winter spirit asked while taking out his scroll and reading it, words magically appeared saying that he was on berk... and he needed to find a dragon conqueror named... hiccup? " ha, weird name." jack said, the boy looked around but found no sign of a dragon conqueror or anyone at that matter. " why would the watch send me in the middle of a forest and not to the person's house?" jack asked himself._

_-end of flashback-_

_" uh...it doesn't matter, so where can i find the dragon conqueror...hiccup?" jack asked.
>

_ " why do you need to find him?" hiccup asked._

_ " it's...top secret but my map here says that i need to find this hiccup., so do you know where he is?" jack asked._

_ " uh, let's bring you back to berk and we'll sort all of this out okay?" hiccup said, hiccup then called for toothless, who was fishing in the pond._

_ " woah!" jack said as the dragon came into view, the dragon landed near the boy and stayed there._

_ " what you never seen a dragon before?" the boy asked. jack was still staring at the dragon._

_ " nope not that i've ever seen or heard of one." jack said._

_ " ok then let's go!" the boy said as he mounted on toothless and took off, jack called on the wind to follow him._

>" i say we train without him!" snotlout complained, it's been nearly two hours the viking teens were waiting for berk's dragon academy leader, and some of them were getting restless.

_ " lets just wait for a few more minutes i'm sure hiccup has a good reason for being late." astrid said, and at the right moment, hiccup and toothless showed up, but there was someone by his side, a boy that looked a little older than all of them, maybe about 16 or 17?_

_ " so hiccup where have you been?" ruffnut asked, basically giving away his cover._

_ " oh so your hiccup!... great way to hide the identity!" the strange boy said, hiccup then mounted off toothless to introduce the vikings to his new friend._

_ " guys ths is jokul- i mean jack frost, i met him out on the cove on raven point bridge . anyway jack these are the twins ruffnut and tuffnut, fishlegs, snotlout, and astrid." hiccup said._

_ " cool so what are you guys? a team of teenage warriors?" jack asked, the other teens including hiccup started laughing._

_ " not exactly, we're vikings. and we're dragon trainers." hiccup said._

_ " oh i see, that explains the dragons." jack remarked on the four other dragons in the arena._

_ " so what brings you here jack?" astrid asked._

_ " well i actually came for hiccup..." said jack, everyone was now staring at him in confusion, silence flew over the academy hiccup was the first the break it.

>

_ " w-what do you mean you came for me?" he asked, but his question was quickly interrupted by the many vikings heading towards the docks, including hiccup's father chief stoick the vast. which was weird because trader johann wasn't supposed to come today. hiccup hopped on toothless's back and rode him to the docks with the others and jack close behind.

>

* * *

> hiccup , jack and the other teens made it to the docks where a big ship was there, it was a little hard for the others to see who was on it, but hiccup knew it was a outcast ship because of the dragon symbol. hiccup wanted to know why outcasts were on berk so he dismounted off toothless and tried to get through the crowd of vikings with only jack and toothless close behind._

_" it's a declaration for war." gobber said, everyone in the crowd began mumbling stoick was finally ready to speak._

_" well i won't do it!, let alvin have his war me and toothless will be ready." hiccup said._

_" hiccup we can't risk you or berk against alvin, we'll have to find another way." stoick spoke over his son's wishes, suddenly jack joined into the conversation._

_"actually i need hiccup to come with me." stoick glared at the boy just realizing he was there, his stare was intimidating._

_" let me explain, i come from burgress a different world from another realm. and i was sent here by a man named north telling me to gather three people from three other realms and well your son is one of these people." stoick still didn't seemed convinced. " if you would allow hiccup to come with me i can promise you that the 'alvin' would never be able to reach him, please my team needs him." and after a few moments of thinking stoick finally gave jack his answer._

_" hiccup may i speak with you alone?" stoick asked, hiccup nodded and followed his father away from the crowd._

_" you must go with jack, hiccup."
>

_" but i want to stay!" protested hiccup
>

_" i can't have you in danger," stoick said, hiccup turned his back, and stoick placed a hand on his shoulder._

_ " i know it's hard but a father must make difficult decisions for his child and sometime that means leaving them." hiccup turned around and gave once last hug to his father, which stoick returned it. hiccup then made a brave face and walked over to jack who is waiting for a answer._

_ " i'm going." he said._

_ " cool, come on!" jack said while heading to a clearing._

_hiccup was about to follow the winter spirit but was stopped by astrid who have followed and herd everything._

_ " you're leaving now?" she asked. hiccup turned around and approached her._

_ " my dad's making me." hiccup said._

_astrid let out a big sigh. " just be careful...okay?" hiccup nodded and hugged astrid, then jack interrupted._

_ "are you coming? he asked impatiently, hiccup glanced back at astrid, still looking at him, shook his head and walked back to jack.

>

_jack was about to open the watch when he glanced at the dragon beside him and hiccup. "is he coming with us?" jack asked ,pointing at the dragon.

>

_hiccup quickly looked at toothless then back at jack." why...you got a problem with night furies?" he asked, jack simply shook his head no and open the watch, releasing a swirling cloud of blue light. and so hiccup, jack and toothless entered inside. leaving the people of berk on their own. stoick gave orders to get ready for a war...a really big one.

> AN: so sorry i haven't been writing, this is just very hard to do and well me and my friend kyra tuiama are working on return of shadows which i will post that next chapter in soon. I just been busy with school stuff, it's almost time for a big test i need to get ready for, but don't worry by summer things will be better.**_

_**oh and this story will be similar to kyra's but kinda in musical form...you'll see later...but i am open for ideas. just no romance.**_

_**Thanks for reading!**_
